

This is a binding contract between the seller (Anasha Boerboels) and the buyer.

The seller declares that he/she is selling and the buyer declares that he/she is buying 1 puppy of the breed South African Boerboel as a pet.

Sire:

Dame:

Puppy:

Born:

Microchip ID number:

It is the consideration of this contract that the buyer is purchasing this dog with the following conditions being strictly adhered to by both parties.

The seller declares that the dog has had the necessary vaccinations for its age and has been dewormed. All certified transcripts such as vaccination certificates, health certificate, copies of the parents pedigree, HD/ED certificates have been handed over to the buyer.

The dog will be replaced with another puppy (not money) as soon as possible if it develops crippling hip dysplasia, to such a degree that it has to be put to sleep before the age of 2 years, provided that it has been PennHIP® tested . The guarantee is only valid if the dog has been PennHIP testet. The written proof of the test results and euthanasiation must be sent to Anasha.

The dog will be replaced if it develops elbow dysplasia, to such a degree that it has to be put to sleep, but x-rays must be delivered to the seller so that the sellers veterinarian can evaluate them.

The evaluation from the sellers veterinarian is decisive in all cases of dispute.

The dog must not be used for breeding if hereditary weaknesses are established

Dogs that are resold or rehomed are no longer subject to this guarantee. If the dog is used at all for breeding, all guarantees will be null and void.

The dog must never be fed with a dogfood that has more than 26% protein.

The dog must not use stairs for the first year of its life.

The buyer also declares that he/she will ensure that the annual vaccinations and deworming are kept current and up-to-date.

The buyer promises to stay in touch with the breeder to inform them of the puppies development and provide information to aid future breeding developments.

The buyer promises to seek advice from the breeder in the event of experiencing any problems with the puppy at any stage of its life.

The buyer is aware that the consequence of his/her ignoring these conditions is the nullification of all guarantees.

The buyer will not hold the seller responsible for any damage caused by the dog.

The buyer declares that he/she knows and is familiar with this breed of dog and has been made aware of its qualities/purposes/capabilities and any consequent dangers/problems associated with the breed.

There is a copy of this contract.

I have read, understood and agree to the above conditions.
